

POLICY DISCUSSION LUNCH

Since Hurricane Katrina, Americans have begun to engage in a discussion on poverty issues in the Gulf Region and nationwide. The Marguerite Casey Foundation is sponsoring a special luncheon presentation bringing together leading experts to discuss these issues. Please join us for this timely and important presentation.

Where: Russell Senate Office Building, Room 385

When: October 19th 2005
12:15 -1:30 pm

Who: The Panel will include policy experts and Marguerite Casey Foundation grantees from the Gulf region:

- Lorna Bourg, President/Executive Director
Southern Mutual Help Association (New Iberia, Louisiana)
- Robert Greenstein, Founder and Executive Director
Center on Budget and Policy Priorities
- Jennifer Marshall, Director of Domestic Policy Studies, Domestic and Economic Policy
The Heritage Foundation
- Sophia Bracy Harris, Executive Director
Federation of Child Care Centers of Alabama
- Liz Fowler, Principal
Health Policy Alternatives, Inc.

What: The panelists will address two timely and important questions:

- 1. What problems of low-income people have been created, exacerbated or highlighted by Hurricane Katrina?
- 2. What are the best solutions to those problems?

For additional information or to RSVP to this event please contact Marguerite Casey Foundation at 206.273.7360 or email marguerite@caseygrants.org

This luncheon offers an independent and objective exposition of poverty issues in the Gulf Region and nationwide and is intended to provide a full and fair exposition of pertinent facts.

